Artist Biography

Aerica Raven Van Dorn was born in Wichita, KS and received her BFA in Sculpture from Wichita State University. During her time in school, she studied under master scenic painters and set designers featured in Wichita Music Theatre. This foundation in paint and environment has led to Aerica's passion for visual narrative and bringing the artistic experience to the most unexpected of places. She has worked in both mural and installation format for a large portion of her life--over ten years.

Upon moving to Austin in 2015, Aerica has delighted in collaboration with fellow muralists, diverse artists, and more scientifically minded colleagues to bring art wherever it can reach people. Her choices are careful and made with intent to activate the space around the artwork. Aerica strives to bring art to the people in their day to day life, not force people to come to the art in a sterile gallery setting. By creating art for the environment, Aerica has made a diverse portfolio further complimenting her skill. She currently works as a lead designer and muralist at Watson Murals, (a locally grown business in Austin), and spends her free-time creating work for volunteer organizations intent on making art accessible to everyone.

Aerica, like many artists, dreads writing her own biographies. Her work speaks better than she does, but she can be a pretty good talker, too.

Artist Biography

Painting for me is a form of communication, the purest way to express my thoughts and feelings. The choice of color, the use of lines, the texture of paint are all tools I use to tell a story, to express my ideas. For better understanding and deeper examination, I like to focus and analyze an idea over several paintings in a series. Each series thus consists of paintings that present a similar idea, but focusing on different characteristics of the subject matter. I also work with different mediums and materials, and play around with light, color, and texture to create an interesting surface and to further explore my subject matter. Once I feel a subject has been fully explored, I move on to a different idea and begin working on a new series.

My current work draws strongly on a wide range of unique life experiences, as well as the study of architecture and nature. My paintings are not just descriptions of reality, but also reflections of my thoughts and feelings at the moment of inspiration.

I have been commissioned to create public art work in the past, while I lived in San Diego from 2004 to 2006. I have experience painting interior and exterior murals. I have attached my resume and several images of my paintings to this application. One of the images is a design for an outside mural that I recently submitted to the city of San Marcos. Another image is of a 10 foot umbrella painted to decorate the courtyard of a condo complex built in San Diego. I've created several umbrellas like this, one for the courtyard in San Diego's City Hall and others for architectural developments.

Zip Code	78746

Artist Biography

Christy Stallop was born and raised in El Paso, Texas. Her family was very encouraging in her artistic pursuits including ballet, piano, and art. In high school, Christy was president of the art club and was named most artistic student her senior year. Her fine art pursuits took a backseat during college when she decided to become an art teacher. After getting her degree in art education from St. Edwards University in Austin, Texas, she taught at a small tier 1 charter school in East Austin for 11 years. During that time, Christy continued her artistic endeavors by immersing herself in children's illustration and became the illustration chair for the local chapter of the Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators organization for 10 years. During that time she published several children's books, and posters. Christy also traveled and continued her fine art education taking classes and workshops around the world including a month long stay in Florence learning ancient techniques such as egg tempura and Frescoes. In May, 2016, Christy decided to take a sabbatical to paint full time for a year. The sabbatical has been extended and painting has become her primary pursuit.

Artist Biography

Since moving to Austin in 2013 I have been a big fan of our fair city and it's artist friendly culture. I am a video game character artist and have been for 20+years, but after finding the art scene here in Austin, I became involved with Free Art Fridays, I have learned to chainsaw sculpt, as well as paint graffiti. I'm a regular at Hope Outdoor Gallery and go by the handle Daddy Otis. I've been fortunate enough to paint at the X games with SprATX, Chainsaw carve at Doug Moreland's annual Calffry Carving parties, and was the Austin Art Battle Champion this year. I have a flair for working within the confines of a structural layout and find it a fun challenge to take decorating objects to the next level, and I also have a fun , lighthearted, cartoony style that is palatable for all ages... and think your current project would be a blast.

Artist Biography

I was born and raised in Houston, TX, and graduated with a degree in Sociology from the University of Texas. I currently live in Austin where I have off and on for 15 years in between living and traveling overseas.

In New Zealand, I was invited to participate in the international mural competition in Katikati and won second place for my naturalistic piece titled, Greetings from Aotearoa. I have been recipient of both a Texas Commission on the Arts grant and a public art commission by the City of Georgetown Arts and Culture department. This year I was also honored to be chosen as the 41st Annual Pecan Street Festival's featured artist and provided the event with an original design for their T-shirt and poster.

Since 2005 I have taken part in dozens of exhibitions in America, Japan, South Korea, Australia and New Zealand, including international group shows and three solo exhibitions. Also, I frequently paint for festivals and events with clients such as SXSW, Austin City Limits, Trouble Maker Studios, HOPE Outdoor Gallery and Capital Metro.

My commercial mural work is in collections around the world including Taiwan, Japan and New Zealand and the US.

Currently I am designing and fabricating my first official public art commission for the City of Georgetown's new Municipal Courthouse. I am also mentoring and working with a group of LatinX teen interns through the Caminos program at the Mexican American Cultural Center as we create a 200-square-foot glass mosaic mural about important and influential Latina cultural icons and the creative voice of our youth. Both projects are set for completion in Spring 2019.

Zip Code 78722

Artist Biography

Liza Fishbone is a multi-disciplinary artist based in Austin, TX.

Through her work, she confronts the intangible nature of Space and Home, and explores the feeling of belonging one place and many places simultaneously. Liza uses the world around her as a canvas, bringing attention to surfaces otherwise overlooked.

Growing up surrounded by painters, musicians and storytellers taught her the importance of public art and introduced her to world of thinking big. From a young age, she learned to paint by climbing alongside her parents as they created murals in St. Louis. Her work is heavily influenced by her time spent in the scenic department of The MUNY Opera, where she became obsessed with paint mixing, the studios of Syracuse University earning a BFA in Fashion Design, and traveling around the world with just a backpack.

Liza is also the creator of The Moon Puppies, an interactive universe from millions of smiles away. Through The Moon Puppies, she invites people into another world where they can lose themselves in the absurd and rediscover their childlike sense of wonder.

Her clients include STL Style House, Capital Factory, Phillips 66, School of Rock San Ramon, Willert Home Products, and more. She is a proud member of Chalk Riot, On The Wall Productions, HOPE and Art Seen Alliance.

She is fueled by marshmallows, dance music, and getting lost under tall trees.

Mez Data

Facebook	/mezdata
Twitter	@mezdata
Zip Code	78723

Artist Biography

Mez is most known for richly colored portrait and figurative paintings. Samples of his work can be found on the streets, restaurants, and throughout homes across America. Born just outside Chicago but raised in Texas, Mez attended the Art Insititute of Houston.

The complex range of Mez's styles can be summed up in a couple of key works. His 'Susanna Dickenson and Child' piece found in the historic town of Gonzales, Texas, showcases his ability to create fine art that highlights more than just the obvious; and his ""Third Eye Cigarette Guys"" display seemingly aggressive characters that have a way of radiating subtle emotion and distinct personality with every twinkle of the eye.

In 1996 Mez was a young artist who created his first graffiti piece under a bridge along some railroad tracks. Always inspired and motivated by the works he saw through, illustration, comics, graffiti and fine art he worked over the years to hone his skill any chance he got. After years of cutting his teeth and developing his style, he is a member of two legendary graffiti collectives, Time Is Too Short from California and the crew that put Texas on the map, No Boundaries.

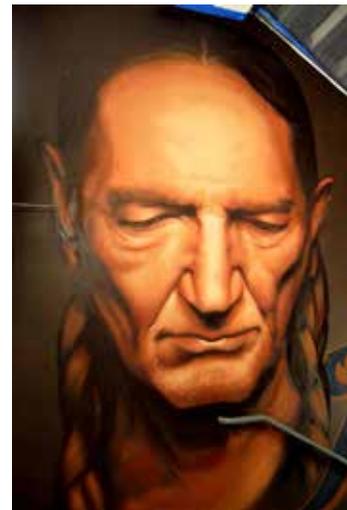

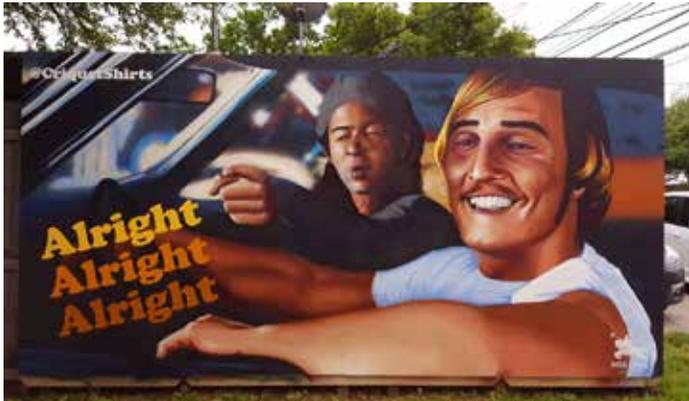

As a lifelong student of art, Mez will never stop learning. He continues to perfect his craft by focusing on highly rendered, sometimes photorealistic pieces. In the future, he plans to produce more canvas work and looks forward to unveiling them in galleries alongside some of his favorite contemporaries.

Artist Biography

Hi, my name is Niz. I have been at the centerfold of the Austin urban art scene for the past 10 years. From my title as “Austin’s Queen of Stencil Art” in The Statesman to recognizable murals all over the city that have become urban landmarks (Homeslice’s Mr. Rogers and Pee Wee Herman “”Don’t Hate””, Sugar Mama’s Run DMC and LL Cool J), and portraits along the tracks across from Yellow Jacket Social club before it was developed...I have been a part of the urban landscape for as long as I have lived here. As a visual voice for the skateboarding/hip hop community and most recently the old school musicians that play The Continental Club, I feel my work represents the beautiful heartbeat of the genuine Austin spirit.

Having made my start here painting on 7.5x20” sheets of grip tape on skateboards to my largest scale work on Ben White and Congress-25x50’, my work renders well on both small and large scales. Being primarily a street artist, I am used to flexibility and challenge as far as surfaces go. Having worked as a full time artist, I am familiar with working within budgets and time constraints.

Painting a mini mural for the city would be a fun and exciting project. I would love create something that represents the vibrant spirit of the city.

Artist Biography

My name is Norma Jeanne Maloney my studio Red Rider Studios is currently in Taylor, but I work in Austin.

I am a 30 year veteran of sign painting and murals, with a host of work all over North America. My work has been featured in the New York Times, a book call Sign Painters and a documentary called The Sign Painters.

I paint on anything from a famers sign to FaceBook offices in Austin and beyond.

This project looks like a creative break from client work.

Most recently featured in Adobe magazine and in Edible Austin.

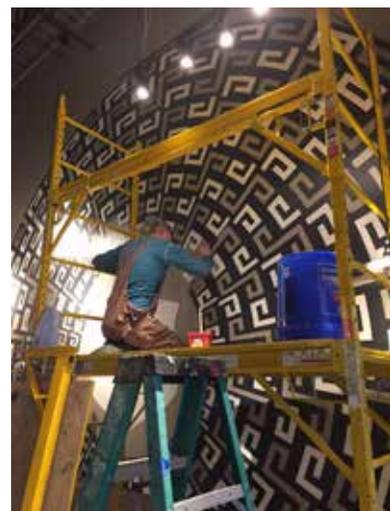

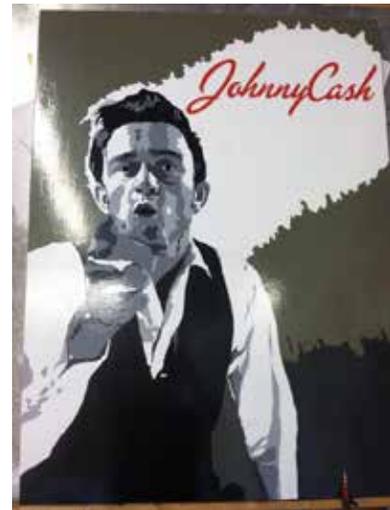

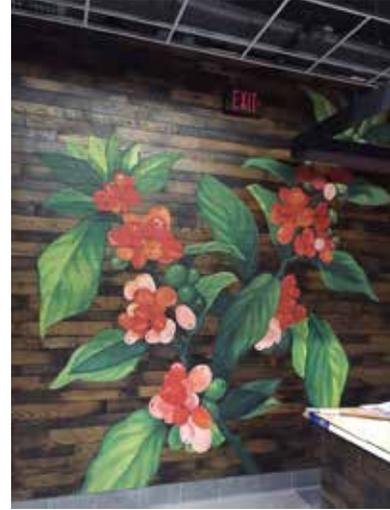

I am always interested in projects that think creatively outside of the norms. It is my expectation that if chosen I will create an interesting and engaging piece within the boundaries of the project on time and on point. Everything I make here at Red Rider is with my hands, nothing is computer generated, from the sketch to the final piece. I work with wood, glass, metal and found objects. My murals have been as large as 70 feet, so working tiny would be a great twist.

Wild Spirit Artworks

Name	Elizabeth Bess Sullivan
Website	www.wildspiritartworks.com
Instagram	---
Facebook	Elizabeth Bess Sullivan
Twitter	---
Zip Code	78758

Artist Biography

I am a professional mural artist and watercolor painter. In the past 4 years I have painted 7 transformer box murals, commissioned by the City of Bastrop, Texas, plus 5 larger murals for the city of Smithville, Texas, and one mural that covers 4 sides of a small building in the city of Elgin, Texas. I've painted several barns, walls, and various odd spaces for private individuals. I was commissioned to paint two cows for Austin Cow Parade, one of which ("Cowjunto") sold for $27,000. Two of the transformer box murals in Bastrop won first place in the people's choice award for best mural, two consecutive years.

I am experienced in working in the field of public art, and I am easy to get along with. All my designs for murals were approved by those commissioning them before work started. I can work with you. I can take orders and I can give orders. Sure, I'm weird – this is Austin.

A major component of mural painting is knowing the materials to use, and how to use them. From years of experience, I have learned how to use industrial paints that will not fade nor wash out, and what cover coats make them last. Murals I painted 8 years ago look as bright as the day they were finished.

Besides outstanding skills in watercolor and mural painting, I am proficient in acrylics, oils, sculpture with polymer clay and earth clay, and Photoshop, including digital art.

I am also a skilled art teacher, and work well in groups. I teach art classes for 3 autistic people, and I teach science, math and music to two autistic children as a volunteer.

I would be thrilled to paint an electrical box in Austin.
